

FOR RENT—Four room brick, lawn, shade, barn, suburban, on car line. $10 per month. E. E. Pascoe, 110 N. Center St.

THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN

FOR RENT—Fine suburban residence, ten room brick, fine shade, lawn, large barn, 2 blocks to car line. Elegant summer home. E. E. Pascoe, 110 N. Center St.

FIFTEENTH YEAR.

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1905.

VOL. XV. No. 329

THE INDIAN BILL

Made Ready for President's Signature Last Night.

THE LATTER DAY SAINTS

Subject of an Address by Senator Kearns of Utah—Powerful in Politics But the Senator Denies that He Bought His Seat of Them.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate spent almost the entire day considering items in the Indian appropriation bill which were not passed on yesterday and extended the session into the night for that purpose. The bill was passed at a late hour.

When the anti-polygamy resolution of Senator Dubois was laid before the senate today Senator Kearns of Utah was recognized and he made an extended speech, strongly denunciatory of the Mormon church, President Smith and Mormon influences in politics. He said the people of Utah repeatedly and willfully violated the compact by which they were admitted into the union. He denounced Smith as an autocrat, exercising regal power, and as collecting one-tenth of the earnings of all the Mormons in the world, amounting annually to $1,000,000. He denied strenuously the Mormon allegation that he (Kearns) had purchased his seat in the senate from former President Snow of the Mormon church. He stated that polygamous relations are continued defiantly.

THE HOUSE HURRYING.

Washington, Feb. 28.—As an evidence of the approaching adjournment a large number of bills were passed by the house by unanimous consent and an evening session was held in order to discuss the general deficiency appropriation bill. During the day bills amending the homestead laws as to lands in South Dakota and Colorado so as to permit the entry of 640 acres instead of 160 were discussed. Final action on them, however, was prevented by the dilatory tactics of the opposition.

CAUGHT IN THE SEA.

A Blockade Runner Held for Japanese Warships.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 28.—It is now believed beyond a doubt that the steamer Tacoma was caught by Arctic ice floes while attempting to pass through the Sayo straits enroute to Vladivostok with a cargo of salt beef for the Russians.

Cable advices to that effect were received here this afternoon by owners of the boat. Japanese warships are in that vicinity and her capture is expected at any time.

TERRORISTS ADVERTISING

Grand Duke Vladimir Walks Under Sentence of Death.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—The utter impotency of the police to face the terrorist organization is shown by the increasing boldness of the latter. Printed placards announcing the carrying out of the death sentence of Sergius are posted even on public buildings. The Grand Duke Vladimir is now almost a complete physical wreck though he boldly walks and rides about in defiance of repeated warnings of his sentence to death. The family of the household of the duke are in a state of terror.

BANISHMENT OF GORKY.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—Maxim Gorky, who was released from the fortress yesterday on $2500 bail was banished late last night to Riga after being informed by Governor General

Trepoff he could not reside in St. Petersburg.

Madam Gorky and a young son bade him an affectionate farewell at the railroad station. They will shortly join him at Riga.

GOULD'S OBJECT IN MEXICO.

Reported He is Trying to Secure Modification of Railroad Commission.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 28.—Advices from Mexico state that the primary object of the present visit to that country of George Gould is to have a personal conference with representatives of the Mexican government and endeavor, if possible, to secure a modification of the concession now held by the National Railroad company of Mexico, under which it has the exclusive right to occupy a strip of territory thirty miles wide, bordering on the Rio Grande.

If this inhibition is removed, it is said to be the purpose of the Gould interests to extend their system south from Laredo, Texas, to Monterey and Tampico.

ONE-THIRD OF FOOD NOT PURE.

Investigation in Connecticut Shows Large Adulteration of Eatables.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 28.—According to the latest report of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment station just issued, of the 6,000 samples of food products of sixty-one different kinds examined during the last year, more than one-third were found to be adulterated. Certain staple articles, such as flour, sugar, cheese, condensed milk, and tea, says the report, have not been found adulterated in this state.

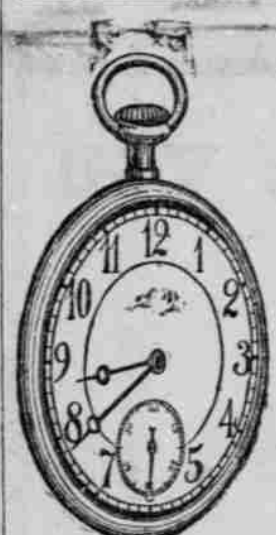

Most forms of food adulteration are innocuous, apparently, as far as health is concerned, but are frauds, and assist for the most part of cheap and worthless makeweights added to increase profits or meet competition in price.

A SHIP ON FIRE.

Crescent City, Cal., Feb. 28.—The steel ship Oregon, running between Portland and San Francisco, is on fire off Crescent City harbor. The passengers were landed here by the steamer Del Norte. The Oregon's cargo of miscellaneous freight caught fire yesterday at 1 o'clock. It is expected that the vessel will be saved.

A PROMISE OF RAIN.

Washington, Feb. 28.—New Mexico and Arizona fair in north rain in south portions Wednesday and Thursday.

THE CORRECT TIME

Is sometimes a matter of great importance. A watch that doesn't tell the correct time is just as bad as no watch at all.

If your watch shows an inclination to go eccentric or unsafely in its habits, bring it to us and we will put it in shape at a very small cost.

GEO. H. COOK

JEWELER, 134 W. Wash. St., Phoenix, Ariz.

$ MONEY to LOAN

Large fund of eastern capital ready for investment at lowest prevailing rates and terms. Home-seekers and Investors are invited to call and investigate before purchasing elsewhere.

DWIGHT B. HEARD

Center and Adams Street.

NEW CLASSES

Are now being formed each week in both Day and Night Schools. Students may enter at any time. Day School all summer. No vacations. Positions guaranteed.

The LAMSON

Business College

A NOTCH BACK

Young Corbett's Position in the Pugilistic World.

WAS DONE BY THE DANE

The Ex-Champion Was at no Time Within Reach of a Decision—His Seconds Barely Saved Him from a Knockout in the Ninth.

San Francisco, Feb. 28.—Woodward's pavilion.—Battling Nelson of Chicago made Young Corbett of Denver appear the veriest tyro at the fighting game tonight when he practically knocked him out in the middle of the ninth round. In order to save their man a complete knockout the seconds threw up the sponge. The man who twice met Terry McGovern was not in it with the young Dane at any stage of the game. He seemed to lack speed and certainly lacked accuracy. In the early part of the fight on several occasions he straightened Nelson up with rights and lefts on the jaw, but when it came to following up his advantage his swings were wild. He seemed to be over-anxious while Nelson was at all times cool and confident.

The seventh round when it appeared as if Corbett were practically gone, he showed a flash of his old time speed and landed several punches on Nelson's ribs and jaw. It was only a spurt, however, and Young Corbett soon slipped into his semi-groggery condition, which lasted until the end of the fight. Nelson's plan of battle was to force Corbett around the ring, keeping close to him all the time. Whenever Corbett missed a swing Nelson was there with a return, which generally landed.

From the fifth round on, Nelson had Corbett in a corner or against the ropes and landed heavy blows at will. Corbett in some way managed to protect himself from a knockout blow until the middle of the ninth round. Then in a rally Nelson swung his right over the jaw and Corbett went down on his back. He remained down and then stood up against the ropes with his hands lowered, unable to protect himself. Nelson partly toppled him over with a swing on the jaw, but before Corbett was fairly on the mat his seconds threw up the sponge.

The round lasted two minutes and thirty-five seconds. In the eighth round Nelson had Corbett against the ropes and the Denver man claimed a foul and lowered his hands. No foul was apparent and the referee did not allow it. Nelson tonight demonstrated that he is Corbett's superior in speed, accuracy and aim, ability to take punishment and stiff punches.

After the fight was over Corbett had but very little to say. He had no excuses to offer. Nelson, of course, was very happy and announced that his next effort would be to obtain a fight with Britt, who had once defeated him. The fight tonight was heavily played by the betting element. Odds were 10 to 8 and were easily snapped at by Corbett's admirers, but there was plenty of Nelson money in sight and all bets offered were taken.

THE STAGES OF THE FIGHT.

Round 1—Corbett danced about looking confident while Nelson wore a more serious air. Corbett continued to dance for a minute trying to drive in. Then he shot a straight right over the heart and missed a similar attempt. Two lefts for the head went wild and a straight right landed high on Nelson's chest. More sparring followed and Nelson planted a left to the stomach and Corbett drove his left hand to face bringing a thin stream of blood from Nelson's nose. Corbett put a left to the body and then drove a haymaking right to the body. Nelson then sent Corbett back to the ropes with a straight right to the forehead. Then they mixed it fiercely, Corbett landing a vicious left to the face and a right high on the body as the bell clanged. The advantage was with Corbett.

Nelson throughout acted mostly on the defensive. Round 2—Nelson crouched low. Corbett waded in mixing it fiercely but did not land. They kept at close quarters Corbett landing left and right shots arm rights and lefts to the jaw. He tried his right haymaker but ran into stiff right to the jaw. They fought desperately at close quarters, Corbett resting his head on Nelson's chest but failed to worry Nelson. The crowd yelled "break" and the referee separated the men. Again they went to close quarters Nelson uppeppercut Corbett on jaw with right. Corbett then planted a fierce right to the body but Nelson kept after the Denver boy and forced him to cover. Corbett sent two lefts to face and just as the gong sounded swung a right to the jaw. It was a desperate round, both men roughing it considerably with Nelson the chief offender. Corbett had a shade the best.

Round 3—They sparred carefully. Finally Corbett bored in trying a left for face but was blocked. They roughed it, Nelson butting Corbett. Nelson swung right and left to the body as Corbett was trying to work to a clinch. Nelson then sent his left hard on Corbett's face and Corbett's right went wild. Nelson put in two heart punches and a left swing sent Corbett to his knees. He was up quickly and shot his left to Nelson's face and a right high on the body. Corbett then staggered Nelson with a right and left swing to the jaw. Two more swings went wild and the injunction came from Corbett's corner, "steady." Corbett's swings at the close of round were wild and Nelson finding an opening shot in two lefts to the body. The round closed with honors in favor of Corbett.

Round 4—Corbett waded right in and they fought in a mix to the center of the ring. Separating, Corbett sent a left to the head and a right to the ribs. They exchanged light lefts to the face and Corbett, backing away swung a left lightly to the face. Another clinch followed, the crowd yelling "break." Corbett landed two rights and a left to the jaw and they fought viciously in a mixup both landing telling blows. Corbett broke it up with a vicious right to the body but Nelson kept after him roughing it in a clinch. Both men showing the effects of it. As the bell rang Corbett planted a fearful left flush on the jaw that sent Nelson quickly to his corner. It was an even round.

Round 5—They went to close quarters immediately. Nelson, then, chased Corbett about the ring, but Corbett drew him to a clinch. Corbett swung twice with a left to face but Nelson countered with a right to the head. Corbett then uppeppercut with a left to the chin and Nelson countered with a right and left to the face and body. Corbett then hooked his left to the jaw and the mix Nelson uppeppercut him with a left to the jaw and drove in a forceful right to the jaw. Nelson followed his advantage and sent in a right and left to the face, dazing Corbett and bringing blood from Corbett's mouth. Corbett fought wildly, trying to find a vital spot with a knockout punch but the Dane kept him covered. Corbett was extremely tired as he went to his corner while Nelson was very cool. It was Nelson's round by a wide margin.

Round 6—Corbett looked worried as he toed the scratch. Nelson forced him to a corner but Corbett wiggled out. Then they went to a clinch and Nelson shoved Corbett to the floor. Arising, Corbett uppeppercut with left to the face and a vicious right for the head. Nelson kept boring in, forcing Corbett to the ropes. He then landed a left and right swing to Corbett's face and blocked attempts at vicious counters. Corbett then ran into a straight left on the face and Nelson landed left and right to the jaw and face, sending Corbett about the ring like a feather. Corbett fought back gamely but Nelson was too strong and planted a right and left to the jaw as the bell rang. It was very serious for Corbett as the bell rang. Nelson was very careful however, and took no chances of receiving Corbett's blows which still had steam behind them.

Round 7—Nelson quickly drove a right to the face but received in return a right to the ribs and a left to the face. The Denver boy continued to break ground, Nelson following him and landing left and right uppeppercuts to the face. Corbett joined Nelson with a right to the face but the Dane scarcely noticed it. Nelson got Corbett by the ropes, putting right and left swings to the jaw. Corbett failed to land at any stage and was dazed. Nelson kept pegging away, sending his usual volley of right and left jolts to the face. Corbett fought like a drowning man grasping at a straw, but Nelson showed no mercy. Occasionally Corbett whipped his right to the jaw but it was returned threefold. Corbett took a terrific beating in this round and looked like a defeated man as he went to his corner. It was all Nelson's round.

Round 8—Corbett lunged out wildly with the left and they mixed it in the center. Corbett landing several fearful right uppeppercuts to Nelson's jaw, dazing the Dane. There was a terrific uppeppercut. It was only a flash in the pan, however, for Nelson kept after Corbett and landed almost at will. He forced Corbett to the ropes with left and right swings to the body. He kept up this work, Corbett fighting with an exhibition of gameness seldom seen in a prize fight. Nelson drove Corbett into his own corner, raining rights and lefts to the jaw. He kept on administering terrific punishment. Corbett was game to the core and fought back like a wild man, landing two hard rights to the jaw. Nelson then got Corbett against the ropes and Corbett threw his arms around in own face to protect himself from the Dane's onslaught.

from Nelson's nose. Corbett put a left to the body and then drove a haymaking right to the body. Nelson then sent Corbett back to the ropes with a straight right to the forehead. Then they mixed it fiercely, Corbett landing a vicious left to the face and a right high on the body as the bell clanged. The advantage was with Corbett.

Nelson throughout acted mostly on the defensive. Round 2—Nelson crouched low. Corbett waded in mixing it fiercely but did not land. They kept at close quarters Corbett landing left and right shots arm rights and lefts to the jaw. He tried his right haymaker but ran into stiff right to the jaw. They fought desperately at close quarters, Corbett resting his head on Nelson's chest but failed to worry Nelson. The crowd yelled "break" and the referee separated the men. Again they went to close quarters Nelson uppeppercut Corbett on jaw with right. Corbett then planted a fierce right to the body but Nelson kept after the Denver boy and forced him to cover. Corbett sent two lefts to face and just as the gong sounded swung a right to the jaw. It was a desperate round, both men roughing it considerably with Nelson the chief offender. Corbett had a shade the best.

Round 3—They sparred carefully. Finally Corbett bored in trying a left for face but was blocked. They roughed it, Nelson butting Corbett. Nelson swung right and left to the body as Corbett was trying to work to a clinch. Nelson then sent his left hard on Corbett's face and Corbett's right went wild. Nelson put in two heart punches and a left swing sent Corbett to his knees. He was up quickly and shot his left to Nelson's face and a right high on the body. Corbett then staggered Nelson with a right and left swing to the jaw. Two more swings went wild and the injunction came from Corbett's corner, "steady." Corbett's swings at the close of round were wild and Nelson finding an opening shot in two lefts to the body. The round closed with honors in favor of Corbett.

Round 4—Corbett waded right in and they fought in a mix to the center of the ring. Separating, Corbett sent a left to the head and a right to the ribs. They exchanged light lefts to the face and Corbett, backing away swung a left lightly to the face. Another clinch followed, the crowd yelling "break." Corbett landed two rights and a left to the jaw and they fought viciously in a mixup both landing telling blows. Corbett broke it up with a vicious right to the body but Nelson kept after him roughing it in a clinch. Both men showing the effects of it. As the bell rang Corbett planted a fearful left flush on the jaw that sent Nelson quickly to his corner. It was an even round.

Round 5—They went to close quarters immediately. Nelson, then, chased Corbett about the ring, but Corbett drew him to a clinch. Corbett swung twice with a left to face but Nelson countered with a right to the head. Corbett then uppeppercut with a left to the chin and Nelson countered with a right and left to the face and body. Corbett then hooked his left to the jaw and the mix Nelson uppeppercut him with a left to the jaw and drove in a forceful right to the jaw. Nelson followed his advantage and sent in a right and left to the face, dazing Corbett and bringing blood from Corbett's mouth. Corbett fought wildly, trying to find a vital spot with a knockout punch but the Dane kept him covered. Corbett was extremely tired as he went to his corner while Nelson was very cool. It was Nelson's round by a wide margin.

Round 6—Corbett looked worried as he toed the scratch. Nelson forced him to a corner but Corbett wiggled out. Then they went to a clinch and Nelson shoved Corbett to the floor. Arising, Corbett uppeppercut with left to the face and a vicious right for the head. Nelson kept boring in, forcing Corbett to the ropes. He then landed a left and right swing to Corbett's face and blocked attempts at vicious counters. Corbett then ran into a straight left on the face and Nelson landed left and right to the jaw and face, sending Corbett about the ring like a feather. Corbett fought back gamely but Nelson was too strong and planted a right and left to the jaw as the bell rang. It was very serious for Corbett as the bell rang. Nelson was very careful however, and took no chances of receiving Corbett's blows which still had steam behind them.

Round 7—Nelson quickly drove a right to the face but received in return a right to the ribs and a left to the face. The Denver boy continued to break ground, Nelson following him and landing left and right uppeppercuts to the face. Corbett joined Nelson with a right to the face but the Dane scarcely noticed it. Nelson got Corbett by the ropes, putting right and left swings to the jaw. Corbett failed to land at any stage and was dazed. Nelson kept pegging away, sending his usual volley of right and left jolts to the face. Corbett fought like a drowning man grasping at a straw, but Nelson showed no mercy. Occasionally Corbett whipped his right to the jaw but it was returned threefold. Corbett took a terrific beating in this round and looked like a defeated man as he went to his corner. It was all Nelson's round.

Round 8—Corbett lunged out wildly with the left and they mixed it in the center. Corbett landing several fearful right uppeppercuts to Nelson's jaw, dazing the Dane. There was a terrific uppeppercut. It was only a flash in the pan, however, for Nelson kept after Corbett and landed almost at will. He forced Corbett to the ropes with left and right swings to the body. He kept up this work, Corbett fighting with an exhibition of gameness seldom seen in a prize fight. Nelson drove Corbett into his own corner, raining rights and lefts to the jaw. He kept on administering terrific punishment. Corbett was game to the core and fought back like a wild man, landing two hard rights to the jaw. Nelson then got Corbett against the ropes and Corbett threw his arms around in own face to protect himself from the Dane's onslaught.

Round 9—Corbett broke ground and received a straight left and then a straight right to the jaw. Corbett sent in two lefts to the face and then shot a straight left to the chin, but Nelson retaliated in kind, giving blow for blow. The ex-champion was again buffeted about the ring and a straight left to the jaw sent him against the ropes. Suddenly Corbett shot two straight rights to the jaw but Nelson never budged an inch. Corbett rallied again driving a left and right to the face. They worked to the center of the ring. Corbett finally going to the floor from a straight right, which caught him on the jaw. He took the count, got up, but was so groggy that he could scarcely stand. Nelson went at him like a tiger, but at this point, seeing that their man was hopelessly defeated, the seconds threw up the sponge. Nelson was quickly awarded the decision.

The gong rang with Corbett in this position and all but out.

Round 9—Corbett broke ground and received a straight left and then a straight right to the jaw. Corbett sent in two lefts to the face and then shot a straight left to the chin, but Nelson retaliated in kind, giving blow for blow. The ex-champion was again buffeted about the ring and a straight left to the jaw sent him against the ropes. Suddenly Corbett shot two straight rights to the jaw but Nelson never budged an inch. Corbett rallied again driving a left and right to the face. They worked to the center of the ring. Corbett finally going to the floor from a straight right, which caught him on the jaw. He took the count, got up, but was so groggy that he could scarcely stand. Nelson went at him like a tiger, but at this point, seeing that their man was hopelessly defeated, the seconds threw up the sponge. Nelson was quickly awarded the decision.

MEXICAN DYNAMITE TAX.

Americans Hurrying Into the Republic Ahead of the Tax.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 28.—Representatives of American dynamite manufacturers worked all night and today rushing cars of dynamite across the boundary into Mexico thousands of dollars being involved in the question whether the commodity would get into Mexico before Wednesday morning at which time the tariff law goes into effect in Mexico. The tax is so heavy as to practically prohibit exportation of dynamite into Mexico for use in mines there. Many cars on the road from eastern factories. It is believed will have to be returned.

The new tariff which the dealers were not informed until Monday, raises the tax to $200 per car, $175 per car was the previous figure.

THE DEFENDANT'S STORY

Buffalo Bill's Wife Takes the Stand.

North Platte, Neb., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Louisa Cody, for forty years wife, business partner and helpmate of Colonel W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), the celebrated ex-soldier, Indian fighter and showman today took the witness stand in defense of her character and name, which has been assailed by her husband in his sensational petition for divorce and to tell her side of the family quarrel.

Mrs. Cody emphatically denied that she had ever attempted to poison her husband and that she had administered dragon blood or any other poison to him for the purpose of securing his love or gaining control over him. Replying to further questions Mrs. Cody declared that she had never told Mrs. Boyer, a witness for the plaintiff, or any other person that she had ever struggled her husband, or complained to her about the conduct of Colonel Cody. Mrs. Cody further denied that she had ever told Mrs. Boyer the names of any women with whom she had thought the colonel was intimate. Under cross examination by the chief counsel for the plaintiff Mrs. Cody became hysterical and was unable to make reply in some instances.

THE MARKET WENT DOWN

The May Option in Wheat Has Collapsed.

New York, Feb. 28.—The reactionary tendency of stocks gained force today and was of more influence on speculative sentiment than yesterday.

STOCKS.

Atchison, 88½; pfd. 102; N. J. Central, 198; C. & O. 50½; St. Paul, 176½; Big Four, 97½; C. & S. 24½; 1st pfd. 60½; 2nd pfd. 36½; Erie, 45½; Manhattan, 171; Metropolitan, 129½; Mo. Pac. 107½; N. Y. Central, 154½; Penna. 142½; St. L. & S. F. 2nd pfd. 70; So. Pac. 70½; Union Pac. 99½; Amal. Copper, 75½; Sugar, 144½; Anaconda, 107½; U. S. Steel, 34½; pfd. 94½; W. U. 93½.

BONDS.

U. S. ref. 2½ reg. 104½, coupon 104½; U. S. 3½ reg. 104, coupon 104; U. S. new 4½ reg. 132, coupon 132; U. S. old 4½ reg. 104½, coupon 105½.

METALS.

New York, Feb. 28.—Copper was unchanged at $28 68 3d for spot and $28 11½ for futures. Locally the market continued firm and producers holding Lake at $15.51. Electrolytic at $15.37½ @ $15.50, and casting at $15.00 @ $15.25. Lead was easier abroad, closing at $12 38 3d in the London market. Locally it was unchanged at $4.45 @ $4.60. Spelter steadier at $24 in London, but remained unchanged in New York, where it closed at $6.10 @ $6.20. Silver, 60; Mexican dollars, 46½.

GRAIN.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The May deal in wheat is down and out. After opening at $1.15½ @ $1.15½, the price of that option fell to $1.13½ and closed at $1.13½. May oats opened at 47½ @ 47½, and closed at 47½ @ 47½. May corn opened at 31½ @ 31½, and closed at 31½ @ 31½.

CATTLE AND SHEEP.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Cattle receipts, 5,500. Market steady. Good to prime steers, $5.85 @ $6.40; poor to medium, $3.90 @ $5.75; stockers and feeders, $2.50 @ $4.40; cows, $1.25 @ $4.50; heifers, $2.00 @ $5.00; canners, $1.25 @ $2.70; bulls, $2.00 @ $4.10; calves, $2.00 @ $7.50. Sheep receipts, 18,000. Sheep steady. Lambs steady. Good to choice wethers, $5.80 @ $6.25; fair to choice mixed, $4.55 @ $5.50; western sheep, $6.00 @ $6.20; native lambs, $5.75 @ $7.75; western lambs, $5.75 @ $7.80.

BLOODY FRONT

The Whole Line Engaged in a Death Struggle.

THE JAPANESE CHECKED

After Having Successfully Advanced for Three Days Into Russian Territory—Kuroki's Sweeping Movement to Right Threatens End of War.

Russian headquarters, Hunan Mountain, Manchuria, Feb. 28.—The Japanese attack was renewed at dawn yesterday along the whole eastern front and Da Kuss was taken after fighting of the most stubborn character. An engagement simultaneously was in progress on a front extending almost twenty miles from the extreme left eastward of Kandoesan where the Japanese opened a heavy artillery fire to the district of Laolinan, where the Japanese advanced in great force, meeting with stubborn resistance.

The capture of Da Kuss opens the road to Fushun east of Mukden and Tie Pass but the Russians are gathering a strong force to meet the threatened attack on their line of communications. The Japanese attack was supported by a strong park of artillery, a reserve of seven batteries being discovered east of Kandoesan, which is yet silent.

The Japanese effected a crossing of the Shakkie at Vanupudi and attacked the Russian center under cover of darkness on Feb. 26, driving back the Russian advance posts, but supports came up and stopped the Japanese advance. The officer in command of the Japanese heard the Russians cry out that their cartridges were exhausted and they thereupon advanced incautiously and received a volley at point blank range, losing heavily.

THE WHOLE LINE ENGAGED.

All Attacks by the Japanese Yesterday Beaten Back.

Mukden, Feb. 28.—Fighting is in progress along the whole line, the Japanese attacking everywhere. All attacks this morning were beaten back and the Russians made counter attacks at many places.

On the right flank the Russians occupied the village of Houtatun, which is close to Sandiapi and from that position hurled hand grenades across the intervening ravine into the Japanese trenches in Sandiapi, causing heavy loss and great disorder.

HOLDING A BRIDGE.

Mukden, Feb. 28.—The Russians have seized the head of a bridge across the Shakkie river in the center of the Japanese lines, assisted by artillery firing of particular energy from Putloff hill and Novgorod hill.

Ten determined attacks opposite Yansingtung and west of Vanupudi were repelled with heavy loss. The situation on the Russian left flank is unchanged as compared with Monday evening.

KUROKI'S MOVEMENTS.

If Prosecuted May Bring the War to an End.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—The Associated Press hears from a high source that Kuropatkin considered his position on the Shakkie river menacing to such an extent by Kuroki's success on the left flank as to necessitate an immediate withdrawal to Tie Pass and so advised Nicholas. No confirmation is obtainable but it is pointed out in high military circles here that with the Japanese pressing the whole Russian line such an operation will inevitably end in a great disaster.

Fragmentary official and press reports of the fresh reverse sustained by Kuropatkin are inadequate for the purpose to draw a conclusion of the magnitude of Kuroki's successes, but the public as usual is ready to believe the worst. It is admitted that the fighting was desperate at several passes on Sunday and Monday. Should Kuroki cross the Hun river the high road to the pass, forty miles north of Mukden, would be open, and Kuroki's retreat would be threatened. Further news is awaited with great anxiety. Anything like a Japanese victory would probably end the war.

GAINING POSITIONS.

Kuroki's headquarters, Feb. 28.—The Japanese on Saturday achieved a signal victory over Bonenkamp's forces fifteen miles northeast of Liao Yang, gaining positions of great strategic advantage.

RUSSIAN LOSSES.

Tokio, Feb. 28.—It is reported that when the Japanese attacked and defeated the Russians on Feb. 23 at Tinkhetchen, on the extreme Japanese right, the Russians numbered 12,000. Their losses are estimated at 2,000. The Japanese losses were slight. The Russians lost 203 dead on the field and lost several machine guns.

SHE DIED IN OBSCURITY

The Wife of a Former Governor of New Mexico.

Pueblo, Colo., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Adeline Bent, wife of former Governor Bent of New Mexico, died in obscurity in this city today. For several years she had made her home in the Mexican settlement on the outskirts of the city. She was a Spanish lady of culture and after the murder of Governor Bent, some years ago, removed to Colorado and made her home on a ranch owned by her husband. Shortly before her death she had instituted proceedings to secure a portion of the large estate left by her husband.

PHOENIX American Ostrich Farm

Boas, Plumes, Pom-poms, Tips, etc., at Producers' Prices. Bronze Ash Trays, Fancy Napkin Rings, Paper Cutters, etc. CAPITOL ADDITION, At End of Washington St. Car Line.

AUCTION SALE

Having sold my home place on North Center street the FURNITURE will be sold at auction on Saturday, March 4th, commencing at 10 o'clock a.m. Respectfully, Dave Turner

Medium Size Navajo

We have received from the best Indian trading post at Fort Defiance the best lot of medium size Navajo blankets ever shown in Phoenix. Prices low; designs excellent; perfect quality. We have Swastika crosses made in all designs.

The Curio in the Old Mission Building FREE MUSEUM

The only proper and good roofing for this country is a metal roof. Don't use any tar or composition. It will last only about two years and will then have to be renewed. A good tin roof will last as long as your house. Call on

D. H. Burtis, PL